Laser Surgery:  Yes  No

Laser surgery can be used instead of a scalpel in many surgeries. Laser decreases bleeding, pain, and inflammation during surgery which leads to quicker healing. Laser surgery increases the cost by $52-$176. Ask for more details.

I, the owner/agent of the pet identified above, verify that I am at least eighteen years of age, and thereby give consent to the Animal Health Center LLC to anesthetize, perform surgery, treat, and prescribe medication for my animal. I understand there are risks associated with anesthesia and surgery, and that I may discuss any concerns I have about those risks with my veterinarian or a staff member.

A pre-anesthetic blood profile is required for pets of all ages to decrease the risks associated with anesthesia during surgery. This blood profile assesses the function of the internal organs as well as RBC and WBC counts. We offer additional optional services to decrease the risks of anesthesia for your pet.
